

LAFAYETTE COUNTY HOSTS 2022 SOUTHWEST WISCONSIN LAND JUDGING CONTEST

On Thursday, October 13th, the 2022 Southwest Wisconsin Land Judging Contest was held on farmland owned by Brock & Erica Sauer just south of Darlington. This annual contest is sponsored by the Land & Water Conservation Departments from Grant, Green and Lafayette Counties. Those who participated were from the following schools: Belmont, Blackhawk, Cuba City, Dodgeville, Fennimore, Juda, Lancaster, Monticello, Potosi, Prairie du Chien, Shullsburg and Wauzeka-Stueben. A total of 133 students participated in the contest.

The students reviewed four soil pits and evaluated soil properties, estimated slope, ranked land classes, and recommended conservation practices in the contest. Three pits were located on gentle to moderate slopes with varying degrees of erosion and subsoil types and one pit was located in a wet bottomland. The type of topsoil of all pits were silt loams with varying subsoil types.

Individual results, with possible scores of 400, with the top 5 winning award plaques.
