Patrolman's Update: Brian Ruf has done some mowing. Allendorf's has done ditching on Cottage Inn Road and Landon Road. The guys have done some patching. Truman, Cottage Inn and Landon Roads have been seeded in with winter rye.

Old Business:

Fire/Ambulance Reports- Belmont Fire District held their breakfast. There was a good turnout. The old tanker truck is being posted on Wisconsin Surplus for auction.

Discussion on Local Road Improvement Program (LRIP) and LRIP-S (Supplemental) road funding: Mark submitted the paperwork for reimbursement for the Truman Road LRIP project. Kendall Township is expecting a $99,000 reimbursement from the State for the work that was done. As soon as the money is received, it will be used to pay off the short-term loan at FNB. Also working with the county to submit a reconstruction project for north Cottage Inn Road

New Business:

Discussion and possible action on the part time patrolman position: After some discussion, it was decided to table this item. The Clerk will be looking into some options for free job postings.
